

A real taste of Aruba is to be had at the National Patriotic Fair!

All day Sunday island residents and visitors alike have the opportunity to get some great buys on beautiful Aruban handicrafts, homemade wine, local cuisine, native music CD's, and a variety of goods adorned with the pattern of the Aruban flag. If you love the color of turquoise blue, there is a tee shirt or halter-top waiting for you at the Aruban Patriotic Fair, aside from fine local entertainment from folkloric dancing to the driving beat of carnival music performed by one of the island's top musical groups, Tsunami. This is one of many events leading up to Aruba's National Himno y Bandera Day and is open on from 10 am to 10 pm in the Entertainment Center in Dakota. Conducted by the Ministry of Labor, Culture and Sports and sponsored by SETAR N.V., the island's telecommunications company, it is an event not to be missed!!
